
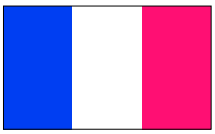
Canada's Official Languages



Canada's official languages are _____ and _____.
An official language is the language that a country's _____ uses.
English and French were chosen because the first Europeans to live in Canada were _____ and _____. Canada is a bilingual country.
Bilingual means that
_____.
Because Canada is bilingual _____
_____.

Students in British Columbia begin studying French in Grade Four. Read the product boxes at your centre in French and try and guess what the words mean. Then use a dictionary to correct your answers. Try the same activity again, this time translating from English to French.

French Words	English Words	Correct Translations

Resource: Finding Your Voice: You and Your Government

French Words	English Words	Correct Translations